CLARIFICATION OF ANNOUNCEMENT & NEWS RELEASE

NTEGRATOR International Ltd. (the "Company") released an announcement via SGXNet on 19 June 2012 ("Announcement").

The Company would like to make the following clarifications:

- 1) The Announcement suggesting that Sino Huawei Technologies Pte Ltd ("Huawei") had appointed the Company to manage SingTel's Copper-based voice and data network infrastructure ("Copper-based Network") requires further clarification. The Company was engaged by Huawei as an independent contractor to perform a limited role in relation to the Copper-based Network. Huawei is and continues to be the entity responsible to assist SingTel in the operation and maintenance of the Copper-based Network.
- 2) The contract signed between Huawei and the Company is not a managed services contract but a contract to engage the Company to act as an independent contractor for Huawei in a limited capacity.
- 3) There is no contractual relationship between SingTel and the Company.
