NTEGRATOR SECURES CONTRACT WITH REPEAT CUSTOMER WORTH S$6.1 MILLION

- Contract is a supplemental agreement in relation to a supply contract that commenced in April 2019

Singapore, 26 February 2021 – Ntegrator International Ltd (“Ntegrator” or “the Group”), a leading regional communications network specialist and systems integrator, today announced that it has secured a contract totalling approximately S$6.1 million from a Singapore-based regional service provider that is a repeat customer.

This is a supplemental agreement to an earlier supply contract that was announced in April 2019. The contract which commenced on 1 April 2019 and covered a two-year period has been further extended for another year. It consists of the installation of pipelines and manholes, installation, maintenance and diversion services for infrastructure cables, and the service provision and maintenance of business services across the eastern, western and central parts of Singapore.

The contract is expected to contribute positively to the Group’s financial performance and condition for the year ending 31 December 2021, subject to the timely completion of the project and effective cost management.

Mr Jimmy Chang, Managing Director of Ntegrator, commented: “This latest supplemental contract serves as a testament to our track record and good working relationship with our customers, who are key industry players in the region. The Group will continue to secure more contracts in our target markets of Singapore, Vietnam and Myanmar.”
