NTEGRATOR SECURES CONTRACT WORTH S$13.4 MILLION

- Awarded by a repeat Singapore customer for the supply of services for the Nationwide Broadband Network (NBN)
- Three-year contract is scheduled to commence in October 2020

Singapore, 26 August 2020 – Ntegrator International Ltd (“Ntegrator” or “the Group”), a leading regional communications network specialist and systems integrator, today announced that it has secured a contract totaling approximately S$13.4 million from a Singapore-based service provider that is a repeat customer.

The three-year contract covers the period from 1 October 2020 to 30 September 2023. The scope of work includes supporting the ongoing operations, implementation and maintenance works for the supply of services for the Nationwide Broadband Network (NBN). These include cable puling (including manhole access), inbuilding wiring and cabling, fibre splicing/termination and testing across public housing, private apartments and landed properties in Singapore.

The new contract is expected to contribute positively to the Group’s financial performance for the financial year ending December 31, 2020, subject to the timely completion of the project and effective cost management.

Mr Jimmy Chang, Managing Director of Ntegrator, said: “This latest contract win from a repeat customer is a clear demonstration of our track record and established relationships that we built over the years. Despite the uncertainties of the pandemic, we intend to continue our focus on our key markets of Singapore, Vietnam and Myanmar, and to capture market opportunities as they present themselves.”
