NTEGRATOR SECURES TWO CONTRACTS WORTH S$47.8 MILLION FROM A REGIONAL SERVICE PROVIDER AND A SINGAPORE-BASED CUSTOMER

- Both contracts awarded are for the supply of fibre installation and maintenance services

Singapore, February 27, 2017 – Ntegrator International Ltd (“Ntegrator” or “the Group”), a leading regional communications network specialist and systems integrator, today announced that it has secured two major contracts worth S$47.8 million.

The contracts involve the supply of fibre installation and maintenance services, and were awarded by a regional service provider and another customer. The contracts are scheduled to commence in March 2017, and cover a contract period of two years and three years respectively. The contracts are expected to contribute positively to the Group’s financial performance over the next two to three financial years, subject to timely completion of the project and effective cost management.

Mr. Jimmy Chang, Managing Director of Ntegrator, said, “The Group is heartened to start the year on a strong footing with these contract wins. The latest contracts awarded by two of our repeat customers in the network and communications space, underscore the Group’s established track record and our strong relationships with key industry players in Singapore. The confidence placed in us by our repeat customers reinforces the Group’s unrelenting commitment in delivering quality products and services. Moving forward, we will continue to leverage on the developments within the industry to capture growth opportunities in our core markets of Singapore, Vietnam and Myanmar.”
