NTEGRATOR SECURES TWO CONTRACTS WORTH S$17.3 MILLION FROM A REGIONAL SERVICE PROVIDER FOR A NATIONWIDE PROJECT

- Latest contracts are for the installation and maintenance services of fibre cable and overground boxes
- Group's outstanding order book currently stands at S$102.4 million

Singapore, April 3, 2018 – Ntegrator International Ltd (“Ntegrator” or “the Group”), a leading regional communications network specialist and systems integrator, today announced that it has secured two contracts totaling approximately S$17.3 million from a regional service provider.

The contracts involve the supply, installation and maintenance services for fibre cable and overground boxes for a nationwide project. These projects are scheduled to commence this month and expected to complete in eighteen months.

Both contracts are expected to contribute positively to the Group's financial performance in the current and next financial years, subject to timely completion of the projects and effective cost management.

Mr. Jimmy Chang, Managing Director of Ntegrator, said, “We are heartened with the latest contract wins for a nationwide project from a repeat customer. These come shortly after several contract wins that the Group garnered in February 2018. We will continue to strive in a bid to secure more contracts in our focus markets of Singapore, Myanmar and Vietnam.”
