

ANNOUNCEMENT AND NEWS RELEASE

SWISS PREMIER SYNCHRONISATION EQUIPMENT MANUFACTURER, OSCILLOQUARTZ APPOINTS NTEGRATOR AS SINGAPORE REPRESENTATIVE

Singapore, April 25, 2011 – Ntegrator International Ltd (“Ntegrator” or “the Group”), a leading regional communications network specialist and systems integrator, today announced that its wholly owned subsidiary, Ntegrator Pte Ltd, has been appointed by Oscilloquartz SA (“Oscilloquartz”) as its Representative for Singapore. A member of the Swiss Swatch Group, Oscilloquartz is a world leader in the design and manufacture of high quality quartz crystal oscillators, with unrivalled experience in the development and manufacture of affordable synchronisation systems for the telecommunications industry. It is a premier manufacturer and supplier of synchronisation hardware and software for public and private network operators worldwide, providing turnkey solutions for wireline and wireless infrastructures.

Ntegrator joins other Representatives in Europe, America and Asia, including China and India, to offer Oscilloquartz’s current specialised synchronisation systems and new related products in the pipeline to enhance telcos’ infrastructure. The appointment is for a period of one year and will subsequently be renewed on an annual basis.

“We are delighted that a world-renowned synchronisation supplier has chosen to partner with us in Singapore. This partnership reflects the potential for synergy between Oscilloquartz and Ntegrator to tap on the demand for synchronization solutions, which enhance the stability of frequency sources and the efficiency of digital signal transmission. We are excited to be working together with Oscilloquartz to target opportunities in this market,” said Mr Jimmy Chang, Managing Director of Ntegrator.

“This collaboration with Oscilloquartz will enhance Ntegrator’s suite of information technology and telecommunications solutions. As one of the leading players in the IT and telecommunications industries in the region, we are constantly enhancing our service offerings to broaden the range of solutions for our customers,” he added.

This distributorship for Oscilloquartz systems opens up another earnings stream for Ntegrator and is value-accretive to the Group.
